

Portalupi 2008 Bianco

2009 { B I A N C O } California

Fresh, bright and fun, this latest vintage of Bianco once again holds true to our commitment to a clean, crisp, floral and fruit driven experience.

This wine has now become a mainstay for forward thinking restaurateurs looking to give their customers an experience that departs from the humdrum of single varietal white wine offerings.

As well, the retail buyer now embraces Bianco as a true value driven premium white wine blend.

The wine is comprised primarily of Sauvignon Blanc and Chardonnay with our signature small percentage addition of Muscat Canelli.

Crafted to drink now, the wines acidity allows for ample development well into it's second year of release.

Jasmine, gardenia and apricot dominate the aromas with hints of peach and lemon on the palate.
