

The nose is full of green apple and white nectarine with hints of melon. On the palate, the wine is crisp and lean with excellent minerality and a long and lingering finish. Fermented on the lees, in 50% stainless steel and 50% older oak barrels, only 135 cases of this wine from the well known Leras Vineyard were produced.