

2010 VIOGNIER

We have been making Viognier for a decade. Bill loves the body and flavors of this white wine – and prefers to make it in a more European style. Our Viognier is crisp, dry and full bodied with a lingering finish of ripe fruit. To retain the purest expression of the grapes, the wine was fermented in stainless steel.

The wine's color is pale straw with green highlights while the aroma carries melon, honeysuckle, vanilla and pineapple. These flavors are also repeated on the palate. Green apple and lychee notes are accented with hints of pear and guava as well.
